The Company expects to utilize the specialized talents of Mr. Fontana and Mr. Axt for the development of operational growth, finance and strategic marketing. They will be active members of the Board and have committed to see the success of the company through to fruition with the assistance of the Company’s new Chairman and CEO.

David B. Dorwart, Chairman and CEO of Good Gaming, stated, “My 31 years of successful experience in start-up operations has taught me the importance of targeting an industry then implementing the foresight necessary to identify underdeveloped opportunities with emerging companies. Good Gaming has turned out to be an exceptional company that warrants my attention and expertise. The new additions to our board should be considered a strategic move as we look to add talent and strengthen our corporate infrastructure in order to build our core operations.” He also stated, “As we look to exploit opportunities that may bring us inorganic growth, we will continue to focus on organic growth through branding and marketing, in order to produce revenue streams. I expect the eSport industry to reach the same exponential growth that I experienced in the wireless telecommunications industry 19 years ago and feel confident that we can position Good Gaming to capture a relevant portion of its niche within the expansive growth of the industry.”
